

POWERUP YOUR SCHOOL® ALIGNMENT WITH COMMON CORE STATE STANDARDS

The Common Core State Standards are used in PowerUp Your School Lessons under Public License. Common Core State Standards © Copyright 2010 National Governors Association Center for Best Practices and Council of Chief State School Officers. All rights reserved.

Although many states no longer use the Common Core State Standards, many state educational standards still have roots of the Common Core State Standards and share the same foundational skills and desired learning outcomes. The following examples demonstrate the alignment between some state academic standards and Common Core State Standards.

Common Core State Standard | Grade 5 ELA: Language

CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.L.5.1: Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.L.5.2

Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

Arizona ELA Standards | Grade 5: Conventions of Standard English

5.L.1: Demonstrate command of the conventions of Standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

Tennessee Academic Standard | Grade 5 ELA: Foundational Literacy – Sentence Composition

5.FL.SC.6: Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when speaking and conventions of standard English grammar and usage, including capitalization and punctuation, when writing.

New York State Next Generation Learning Standards | Grade 5: Knowledge of Language

5L3: Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening.

The PowerUp Your School program is aligned with the Common Core State Standards to be an accessible program for schools and meet the learning needs of students nationwide. We have not received any feedback indicating an inability to find an alignment between a standard referenced in the PowerUp Your School lesson with a current state-specific standard.

PowerUp Your School Instructor Training provides an in-depth overview of alignment between physical activity and academic standards and how to incorporate relevant academic material to enhance the student learning experience.
